

4.3. Information for members : tips and tricks

1. The website should be container of all the corona related information that are for the use of others – members first and foremost. Your website is the back bone of your communication system. Focus should be on keeping the website up to date.
2. It works to refer to your corona related information by putting a banner on your homepage, linking to the actual articles.

